Congress has concluded its brief, tempestuous ante-holiday session. It is not fired, but it will rest for ten days, that is, if the Christmas festivities mean rest for legislators or for anybody. Many will remain in Washington during the holidays. Those, especially, whose homes are far away, will endure life at the Capital, because railroad passes, formerly distributed with such lavish design and purpose, are no longer available.

Congress, or at least some congressmen, are as mad as can be. The elections are over and an unusually large percentage of seasoned members of Congress has been continued in the national legislature. Those of the Republican majority have mostly won their places by vociferating from many stumps their unbounded and unqualified faith in the Roosevelt policies, aims, aspirations, Big Stick and everything. But they no sooner got back to Washington than the Big Stick is flourished over them and poked in their ribs. This, of course, is not nice. It is true that the President has been doing the same thing more or less, for seven years and three months and that the country has been so delighted with it that it was only prevented by strategy from nominating him for a third term.

Everglades Land Sold

Tallahassee, Dec. 22.—Another large sale of Everglades land has been consummated here by Governor Broward and the Internal Improvement board.

Land, it is understood, was sold to the value of $200,000, but the price paid per acre is not known. It is said, however, that $50,000 was paid in cash, the remaining payments to be made three or four additional installments. A New Orleans company is understood to be the purchaser.

Governor Broward has for several months been active in the matter of arranging for the sale of lands before his term of office expires, and it may be that one or more additional big sales will be made before General Gilchrist is inaugurated. What the policy of that gentleman will be in the matter of disposing of the lands remain to be seen.

Gardner Fire Swept

We learn in a rounabout way that the town of Gardner was fire swept Tuesday night. The fire started in the rear of Mr. Fielder's store and rumor has it that only one store and the depot are left.

High School Notes

All pupils above the third grade were busy last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday with the mid-year examinations.

All pupils who have never before attended school and who expect to enter during the second term, should be on hand immediately after the holidays. Unless they enter within two weeks after the holidays. Unless they enter within two weeks after the first Monday in January they will not be admitted.

A number of the High School boys are interested in the Athletic Contests to be held in Tampa during the State Fair. The school hopes to be well represented in a number of these athletic events.

The County Board of Education at its regular December meeting granted the DeSoto County High School another teacher to be added to its faculty. Miss Marguerite Smith, of Tennessee, has been selected and will have charge of the third grade.

Wedding Bells

For the third time within six months Capt. C. S. Noble and wife have had their happy home depleted in the loss of a daughter. This time it was Miss Elizabeth M., and the fortunate man who secured the prize was Mr. John T. Binnecker, a popular young contractor and builder and real estate man of Jacksonville.

The Methodist church was beautiful with greenery and flowers under the tasteful hands of Mr. C. S. Bushnell, and at 3:30 p. m. the church was filled with their host of friends to witness the beautiful marriage ceremony of the Episcopal church which was performed jointly by Rev. C. White and Rev. H. Keigwin.

The ushers were Louis Koch, Leon Stroud, Harry Cross and Roland Cline, and the flower girl was the charming little Leona Priest. The bridesmaid was Miss Mabel Fouldes and the best man was Mr. W. H. Jones of Oranga Bend, Florida, who, twenty-six years ago officiated in similar capacity at the marriage of Capt. Noble and wife, and now for the third time in half a year he returned to assist in the ceremony.

The bride was dressed in Paris muslin over taffeta and carried bridal roses. The music was by Mrs. J. Ross, who, as the bridal party was entering the church, accompanied the beautiful solo, "Oh, Promise me," which was sung by Mr. Brown.

After the ceremony a number of the friends went to the home of the bride at the Southern Hotel and sat down at a bountiful table of refreshments, and the merry party enjoyed the occasion until the evening train, on which the bride and groom departed for their new home in Jacksonville, followed by the congratulations and best wishes of a host of admiring friends.

Bazaar a Marked Success

The Bazaar given on December 18, by the Guild of St. Edmund's church, was a marked success both financially and socially.

The wide hall and parlor of the Central Hotel were artistically decorated with palms, beautiful ferns and other handsome growing plants interspersed with bright colored lanterns. The various tables for ices, candies, oysters, fancy articles and the Jack Horner pie were arranged around the sides of the hall. The "Welch Rabbits" were sold in a prettily decorated alcove, while the delightful concert was given in the large parlor.

Each of the varied musical selections was charmingly rendered and the dramatic readings were beyond the criticism of a mere layman. They would have done credit to professionals.

The receipts were considerably in excess of a hundred dollars, and the members of the Guild are most grateful for the assistance given them in preparing for the concert and in other ways.

The proceeds of the Bazaar are to be used for making a sidewalk around the little church of St. Edmund.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

What a Heap of Happiness it Would Bring to Arcadia Homes

Hard to do housework with an aching back.

Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that Backache pains come from sick kidneys, 'Twould save much needless woe.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Arcadia people endorse this:

Mrs. J. R. Dowd, Britt Ave., Arcadia, Fla., says: "I was in poor health for some time as the result of disordered kidneys. My worse trouble was pains through my back and sides. I also had slight attacks of rheumatism and at times my whole body ached. I heard so much in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills that I at last decided to give them a trial and I am now glad that I did so. The contents of the first box gave me relief and I continued their use. The pains gradually lost their severity and I grew better in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills did me more good than any remedy I had previously tried and I am glad to recommend them. I procured this worthy remedy at Harry Cross' drug store."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
